questions.

1. How have you lived as a disciplemaker this week? In what ways have you not just checked the box of Christianity, but actually followed Jesus on mission?

2. When you think of Christmas, what are some of the words you use to describe it? Have we forgotten who we are truly celebrating at Christmas?

3. How hard is it for you to receive the free gift of grace? How often do we all try to earn it, deserve it, buy it? Grace is a free gift, but it had the highest cost for the One who died to give it.

4. In what ways can you take on the nature of a servant? Christ came to serve others, therefore we must serve others.

5. What does it look like to give God all the glory this holiday season?

6. Close in a time of prayer as a group. Perhaps you can even break up into pairs and pray one on one. Share with each other where you need God to bring you back to what Christmas is really about. Ask God to give you the same spirit of humility and servanthood that Christ had. Pray for any requests that members in your group have.
